【授業の目的】 To present topical themes encapsulating grammatical patterns. This encourage the student to see modern global values and see English as an important tool in understanding them. It will also aid their ability to respond appropriately to such ideas.

【授業の概要】 The course will consist of a series of themes listed below, which will be explored. Students will be required to produce works on those themes to be presented verbally and in writing to enforce the stated goal. These exercises will be derived from handouts as well as from multimedia presentations. Progression through the themes will depend on the student's ability but hopefully one unit will take two classes.
